Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life. -Proverbs 16:31

For me November is the month that I really focus on gratitude. Generally speaking, giving our attention to all that we have instead of all that we want, leads to a more joyful existence. This year, I've been thinking a lot about my parents and grandparents. They raised me in the church. They set wonderful examples for me in how to follow Jesus Christ.

Beyond those people in my family, I am also mindful of the various other adults that have shaped my faith. I had Sunday School teachers that taught me about the bible and real people throughout history that practiced their faith in so many ways. One of my teachers was a Vietnam Vet, who had spent time as a POW. He told us a few (age appropriate) stories of his time in captivity. He survived his ordeals because of his faith. He had already given up so much, but he wanted to spend his time teaching little kids about the love of Jesus.

I remember the church secretary spending time telling me stories while I waited for my dad. It was church people that taught me to crochet, play various games, and even perform a proper cartwheel. My dad was a fabulous pastor, who did elaborate Vacation Bible Schools and taught confirmation classes. That said, I wouldn't be the person I am today without the many people and stories that all worked together to shape me.

I am so glad that my children have had their own people beyond me and Compton teaching their Sunday School classes, supervising their church social activities, and introducing them to new skills. That is a crucial part of being church – people of all ages coming together to share their faith with one another.

Most of us at St. Timothy have benefited from the faithful that have come before us. They worked hard to establish the congregation. They taught hundreds of children – planting seeds of faith – over six decades. We don't even know all the good work being done in this world today because of those seeds being planted.

We also don't know what the children baptized, educated, and confirmed in this past year will do, but we want to offer them all the healthy spirituality we can while we do have them with us. It is my hope to give them a wide variety of faithful people and their stories as part of their faith formation. To do that we need more volunteers willing to give their time to the children. Are you willing to help with this? Do you have a story you're willing to share? If so, let me know and we'll make it happen.

We are a congregation rich in faithful people with amazing stories. I love learning from you and I know the kids will too.

Patrick Kaplan ~ November 2nd

A Memorial Service commemorating the life of St. Timothy Member, Pat Kaplan, will take place at 10:00am on Saturday, November 2nd. Pat was an integral part of the Usher Ministry, a humble volunteer each week for Heart 'n Hands Mission, and so much more.

Prior to his passing, he dictated the note below to his dear wife, Barbara, to be shared with his beloved fellow congregants:

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,
Thank you for your prayers and support. You all have a special place in my heart.
My wish was, to worship together one more time but this could not become reality. Know that throughout this journey my faith has never wavered and I believe we will all be together again standing with Jesus.
Yours in Christ,
Pat

BIBLE STUDY & COMMUNION

Bible Study with Holy Communion at 2pm ~ Join Pastor Kimberly as she leads the group through an exploration of lectionary readings followed by the sharing of Communion. ## Bookworms ~ November 9th

*All marriages have a breaking point.
All families have wounds. All wars have a cost. . . .*

Like many couples, Michael and Jolene Zarkades have to face the pressures of everyday life—children, careers, bills, chores—even as their twelve-year marriage is falling apart. Then a deployment sends Jolene deep into harm's way and leaves defense attorney Michael at home, unaccustomed to being a single parent to their two girls. As a mother, it agonizes Jolene to leave her family, but as a soldier, she has always understood the true meaning of duty. In her letters home, she paints a rose-colored version of her life on the front lines, shielding her family from the truth. But war will change Jolene in ways that none of them could have foreseen. When tragedy strikes, Michael must face his darkest fear and fight a battle of his own—for everything that matters to his family.

For Bookworms information, contact Barbara Westerberg at 973.696.1471 on how to join in the friendly discussion.

Happy reading!

CHRISTIAN ED/SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

St. Timothy's Sunday School is happy to announce that our Godly Play class has many new stories this year. We are fortunate to have added more Old Testament stories to the curriculum. I will say, that, the students really enjoy the story unfolding right in front of their eyes. Learning through the words and actions with objects really makes the story come to life. You can truly picture it in your mind.

A weekly offering has always been part of our Sunday School classes. We, as adult members, give a regular offering. And honestly, many of us have forgotten about this important act for our children. When our children learn how to give at a young age, they will likely carry that practice into adulthood. Our offerings are an act of worship where we respond to the grace, love and mercy of God. Each of our classes will have a basket for offerings. If you still have envelopes from the past, feel free to use them. If you do not have envelopes, no worries, we have more.

Members wanted! Calling out to all who would like join our Christian Education Committee. We have only one requirement - wanting to help continue teaching the Word of God to all ages. We welcome any ideas that you may have and we would love to hear them. Our meetings are on the 3rd Tuesday at 7pm each month in the Parlor. We offer virtual attendance too.

In His name,
Laura Dec

HEART N' HANDS

Pat Kaplan was a beloved member of our team. He was always willing to do whatever needed to be done, and did it all with a calm, confident compassion for those working with him and for those we serve.

To adapt a quote from Coach Boone in Remember the Titans, “You cannot replace a Pat Kaplan, as a player or a person.”

We will miss Pat, his smile and his humor. Our deepest sympathies go to Barbara and the entire Kaplan family. May God grant you all peace and comfort.

“The smallest act of kindness is worth more than the grandest intention.” – Oscar Wilde

This month’s Heart ‘n Hands collection item is Protein bars.

Please keep this in mind when you are shopping.

You may place your donation in the blue bin near the front glass door on the classroom level.

Pastor Kimberly with charter members
Carl Johnson, John Steible

On a beautiful Sunday, St Timothy joyously celebrated the anniversary of the signing of its charter. This milestone event was attended by several charter members and longtime congregants, who gathered to honor the rich history and enduring legacy of their beloved community.

The celebration began with a heartfelt service, featuring an inspiring testimony by Jeff Riotto who shared his personal journey and the impact St Timothy has had on his life. The church was filled with the congregation's singing, their voices blending beautifully with the harmonious sounds of our Alleluia Choir, adding a touch of grace to the occasion.

Following the service, attendees enjoyed a delightful lunch, where old friends reconnected and new friendships blossomed. The atmosphere was filled with laughter and stories, as everyone reminisced about the past and looked forward to the future.

This anniversary not only marked 67 years of faith and fellowship but also highlighted the strong bonds within the St Timothy community. It was a day of reflection, gratitude, and celebration, reminding everyone of the importance of unity and the enduring spirit of St Timothy Church.
